Respected Sir.

In resubmitting your No. G.O. No. MS 337 H 9.4.31. I with profound respect crave your indulgence in kindly granting the request herein stated.

When I lost my husband, I was doomed in sorro and I was ignorant of the new rules to grant the gratuity to widow, thereby it is delayed to represent your honor earlier the

The deceased left 2 children within 3, 4 years old, nothing left for them, nor there is anyone to look after them It is utmost difficult either to feed or to educate them therefo I am in great distress.

Taking into consideration of the service rendered by the deceased will it too much "Respected Sir" should I make an appeal to reconsider my humble case to grant me as desired.

I in conclusion beseech your gracious sympathy which is always characteristic and save me from the desire

I beg to remain
Respected Sir
your most obedient servant
